Dear Mr. De La Torre:

This letter is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA-2015-000798), dated May 22, 2015, in which you requested the following:

“a copy of any and all documents to include letters, emails, CBP vetting request and its attachments, and any notes received from the employer TRDI, Inc. in regards with Mr. Daniel Tovar CBP vetting request and results.”

Enclosed please find the documents responsive to your request. As per your request, a copy of all letters, emails, CBP vetting requests and its attachments including any notes received from the employer TRDI, Inc. are included for your review. However, in processing your request, we withheld personally identifiable information such as employee cell phone numbers, individual names and personal email addresses in accordance with the sixth exemption of FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 52(b)(6). This is done because public disclosure of this information would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

Based on the above information, this constitutes a partial denial of your request. You have the right to appeal the adequacy of GSA's search under FOIA. To do so, you must write, within 120 days of your receipt of this letter, to the following address:

U.S. General Services Administration

Your appeal must be in writing and should contain a brief statement of the reasons why you believe GSA should have the requested information. Enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this letter. Both the appeal letter and envelope should be marked prominently, "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."
